

PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
 VEHICLE EMISSIONS INSPECTION PROGRAM
 NEW VEHICLE EXEMPTION

Dear New Vehicle Owner:

The vehicle indicated below is being registered in Pennsylvania for the first time and is therefore exempt from Pennsylvania's vehicle emissions inspection program for your first year of ownership. This exemption is valid until the last day of the month and year listed below.

Please keep this document in your vehicle and display it to any police officer upon request. You must also present this document with your proof of ownership and financial responsibility if your vehicle is submitted for safety inspection in the first year of ownership.

VEHICLE MODEL YEAR	VEHICLE MAKE/MODEL/BODY STYLE	ODOMETER READING	DATE OF SALE/LEASE	EXEMPTION EXPIRES THE LAST DAY OF
VEHICLE IDENTIFICATION NUMBER
VEHICLE OWNER NAME
ADDRESS
ISSUING AGENT NAME			ISSUING AGENT SIGNATURE
ADDRESS

Notice to Law Enforcement Officers and Inspection Personnel: The vehicle described above is exempt from Pennsylvania's vehicle emissions inspection program under Chapter 177.101(c)(13) of PennDOT regulations. Although the vehicle registration document corresponding to this vehicle may indicate the vehicle is subject to Pennsylvania's vehicle emissions inspection program, it may be legally operated on Pennsylvania roadways without displaying a valid emission inspection certificate. This vehicle will be required to display a valid emissions inspection certificate by the last day of the month and year indicated above.