Understanding Your Credit Score

What you should know about credit scores

Your credit score is a number that reflects the information in your credit report.

Your credit report is a record of your credit history. It includes information about whether you pay bills on time and how much you own to creditors.

Your credit score can change, depending on how your credit history changes.

How we use your credit score

Your credit score can affect whether you can get a loan and how much you will have to pay for that loan.

The range of scores

Score ranges from a low of to a high of

Generally, the higher your score, the more likely you are to be offered better credit terms.
